T/H Ddukoddi is a dish of ricecakes boiled in a spicy sauce.

Erin... Aren't you going to transfer-?

Ah...

Well, to tell you the truth...

Your transfer hasn't been permitted by the director... I mean, by the Executive Office.

The Executive Office?

The decision to «transform» you was Skyler's, as the leader of the Special Class.

Just imagine walking into the Director if we «transform» you now.
I really don't want to feel that.

Isn't it sensible to avoid taking unnecessary
risks?

I... Don't really understand...?

What I mean is that you're our backup of last resort. If everything goes well, you won't be transferring anywhere.

What? That's not what we agreed to...! In order to convince Mo, I have to...

Yeah, yeah

But if we can convince her, then we won't need you to do it for us anymore, right?

You're our last resort.

If we fail, we will transform you and will be the leader's responsibility.

So the two of us will head off. He is good boy and don't bother the leader too much.

W-WHAT?!!

You're telling me...

To play with this person alone...?

Yes?

He's not even looking at me when he speaks ..

Don't be annoying.

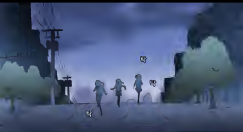

I don't want my reading

A resistance band is looped around their right foot and the front of their right thigh, providing resistance as they extend the leg. They are wearing a blue t-shirt and black sneakers.

Layers Season 2
17. Confluence

It's definitely uncomfortable without Skylor

Isn't there anyone who can use telepathy, whether they are Executive office personnel or Special Class?

There used to be someone who could use telepathy, but they're not here anymore

Until now, it has been only Skylor, but apparently there was someone else before.

Really?
Wow?

I heard that it was someone who went into the Special Class, but became a minus
in the shortest time

What?
So...

Really, someone you know?

Yeah, I did I met him
before?

There was a person who became a minus in only 3 months, until he joined the Special Class

Ah

"The one
we've seen
before..."

"That 'Mary' guy?"

"Give it up, Uen."

"Against my telepathy."

"I'm Gun's
allies."

"Some's offense!"

"With only the three of us,
the Special Class... not even the Executive office personnel's won't be able to defeat us!"

"Not only you have rejected the limited
freedom this Layer has
to offer,

but to betray us
as well!"

"Although if you move
aside now and let us
chase Hanna and Mito,
you'll be forgiven."

So...

By showing us that you are a bit 'stronger'
than me,

... You are blackmailing
us to make things go
your way...?

Don't joke around.
What kind of 'freedom'
is that?"

I don't have the intention to stay, or help...

"Anyways,
let's go."

No, please...
Please let Henna and Miu
meet up with the Special Class safely...

A... just now, did you hear something explode?

It's not my imagination, right?

Yeah. To actually
feel the vibrations,
it must've been fairly close.

BOOM!

...There it is again.
It's closer this time.

It's coming from where the smoke is... It's probably around three blocks
distance. ?

Not only you can't be
of any help to us.

But you'll just get in the way
So the best way to help is by not by helping at all

H... how can you say
such thing...

I'm only telling the truth,
so why don't you go back to that class room and quietly let that sink in?

H... how can!

If you interrupt my reading, I'll shoot

Rather, didn't he just

Over there...

The guy who

A character with dark, slightly messy hair, wearing a black suit and a red bow tie, stands on a rooftop. The background is a dark blue night sky filled with many small white stars. The character's hair is blowing in the wind. A speech bubble is positioned above the character's head.

Don't worry

but it

With those two,
city doubling is possible ...!

According to what happened with the previous 'doubled' objects

I need to get close to one of them

To transfer a 'person'
from Layer,

there's no need for me
to transfer myself.

I can just send them
back to reality.

But, when transferring an 'object',
hence, when I'm attempting doubling,
I need to transfer as well.
Only then, will the object be doubled.

So if I transfer
with one of them,

I'm not only
transferring a 'person'

but also those buildings

that have been lifted up by poltergeist.

The person I should transfer with—

is of course—

You,

Lilac.

...!!

"Damn it, the Director is going to use Min's brother to start doubting!"

Huh?

"It must be because the guy from the other Layer can cancel the transfer button..."

"Boom..."

"I don't have powers like Mui's brother"

"Do you remember what I've Gun said before?"

What, I'm

You can think of everything that you do in Layer as a poisoning process.

What that means is since there are no records or information about Layer

you can only find out for yourself

Ah...

So this, you not having a poisoned is not set in stone
Try a lot of different things.

"That's right, you can only try!"

"If that guy from the other Layer can do it,

someone amongst us should be able to do it as well."

A scene from an anime or manga. Two characters are shown against a dark blue background filled with small, white, particle-like specks. On the left, a character with dark hair and a black suit is shown in a dynamic, slightly crouched pose. On the right, a character with light-colored hair and a black jacket is shown in a more upright, slightly lunging pose with one arm raised. Both characters have a determined or intense expression. Three speech bubbles are present: one above the left character, one above the right character, and one below the right character.

What's this,
changing side?

"I cannot let you."

"Because I know what you're trying to do."

So what? it was your dream to live in Layer

So what happens to the reality shouldn't matter to you...

Then what about you?

From saving minutes to doubling... what you've done so far was for the reality?

What you're doing now is the opposite of what you would've usually done.

Why won't you think of it that way?!

Nothing has changed. I'm doing this to maintain the office.

So don't get in my way

Director, Director!

I've got a great idea!

... It's you a Sore!

.....

Listen, listen

... But if I don't say it now, I'll forget.

If it's something that you'll forget easily, then it's not important.

No, no. I'm just not good at remembering things.

I haven't remembered
your name either.

So... What
was it... So...

SCAR OPPA!!

The character from the book the other teacher
told him?

I'M NOT SCAR!!

Why? You have a scar on one of your eyes and it looks cool!

WHAT'S SO COOL
ABOUT A SCAR?

And the Director said that I can come whenever
I want. Right? Right?

Yeah

The Director
isn't the type
that's easy
to read?

Angelical
Listen to this

You lift up the monster with pottergeist,

and you transfer
it to reality!

Then the monster can't use pottergeist in reality

and will fail to
its death

What's up with your reactions?

But isn't it a lot better than having the special class risk their lives
while fighting?

Forget about safe or simple.

The only people that can transfer a monster are you and the Director.

Then you just need to transfer together!

You transfer to the reality in midair...

and transfer back to Layer
before you hit the ground!

Transfer to reality with the monster

Transfer
back to Layer

Leave the monster
behind

Like that

Falls

But what if you lose concentration and can't transfer back in that short time frame?

There's no need to test it because it's too dangerous!

Also...

Don't talk about that in front of any other special class kids.

Eh, why?

Why do
you think?

Your idea itself
is dangerous.

You thought of that solution against the monsters.

but what if you use
that on a human.

On a person without
the transfer ability!

...Ah..!

Flesh

So watch your words.

The special class
doesn't know about doubling
yet, so don't give them
any ideas.

If a similar idea starts to circulate amongst the special class, I'll suspect you first.

You're the strongest plus
in the special class.

so you get all sorts of benefits and information first
right?

All of that comes with a great
'responsibility.'

The other students
know that you hold a great influence over
the special class

So you need to think more about your actions and how it might affect the other students

Now, if you get it,
go out and play

Director,
haven't you told Sorei about this
before?

Ah, yeah. I thought it would be difficult for her to understand
at her age.

Kids these days are quite smart. Look at her coming up with an idea like that.

Please say something
to her as an adult.

Alright.

Sure, the idea that you've thought of

is really creative
and interesting.

but it is also very dangerous.

The tragedy that might happen
because of it.

Creak

should only happen in your imagination,

and not in next life right?

Creak

Never.

Manga's hand is weak...

What... he's not trying to get back up, but why is he looking at me...

Ah...

KEN KEN...

Ken... Ken...

Yeah...
of course...

I wondered why someone who is so selfish

would start to worry about the reality, and sacrifice himself for someone else.

What...? Now that you've come to reality,
you're not sure
anymore?

You must be nervous. You can't read my thoughts
over here.

!!

In Layer, you must've
been confident.

I didn't have any intention to harm you.

and if we were to get stuck in this situation, I would have to return to Layer.

And when I do, I would have to bring you back as well.

That's why you're not looking for ways to save yourself, but you're looking at me.

The talk about Skylet, Skylet saving a genius

and transferring
to reality with me
instead of Liliac

Was done after you calculated the situation by reading
other people's thoughts.

You still have a sinister
heart Mang.

Unfortunately for you,
I don't intend to make things go your way!

... So you still can't talk at all in 'reality'. When you're so tentative in Layers ...

If you can't read the other person's thoughts, you can't think of an answer?

Then I'll tell you clearly

I will attempt doubling regardless of what you think,

..!!

and to do so, I don't have the intention of bringing you back to Layer

Yeah, you can live here.

In this reality

without knowing
what the other people
are thinking.

Let's have quietly with your mouth shut.

!!

Now that the obstacle is gone

?!
